ABSTRACT

The traditional attitude of India's social reformer, political leader, current politicians, diplomatic and policy makers are having the habits of cooperating to international order, if it seems fair and applicable to world justices. India have been participating in so many world affairs with material assistances as part and parcel of human rights protector than any other country in the contemporary history with the permission of powerful countries. Very notably, since dawn of 2001 as focus light of south Asia peace as well as Afghanistan peace even after death of Taliban rule in Kabul. India interest sprang at high level to strengthen Afghanistan political institutions with goal to protect human rights. Since soviet invasion in 1979 to 1989, there were sporadic chaos, commotion and bomb blast due to supper power politics, rivalry and regional countries politics. This had created so many economic damages, unrest and human rights lost. After end of Russia invasion Taliban ruled Kabul again about ten years with so many human rights violations as unanswerably as unaccountably. Therefore, as big power of south Asia India could not have prevented and involved in Afghanistan for protection human rights against Talban rule unless U.S bring new anti –terrorism law as a new world order. So, after initiated new world order by U.S as to destroy terrorist has been as most useful to India in number of ways such as ,rapprochement with Muslim people ,protecting human rights ,gaining good name from the Afghanistan people and fortifying India's growing power beyond the South Asia.
