ABSTRACT

The article covers the issues of preserving the language, customs, traditions and cultures, unique values over the years of independence, the further development of interethnic relations of more than 130 nations and peoples living in a multinational Uzbekistan. The reasons for the arrival of people of other nationalities, hospitality and tolerance of the Uzbek people were revealed to the Uzbekistan. The article also notes that equal conditions have been created in Uzbekistan to preserve the national identity of nationalities - for this there are 138 national cultural centers in the country, coordinated by the State Organization - the International National Center, classes in the Schools of the Republic are conducted in 8 languages, the media are published in 12 languages. All this is explained by the fact that in Uzbekistan, there is a mutual understanding in the interethnic relations, all nations and peoples living in the republic live in peace and harmony on the basis of the idea of "Uzbekistan - our common house".
