ABSTRACT

This article tells about the role of examples of Uzbek folklore in the aesthetic development of our youth. Folklore heroes not only live as artistic images, but also become emblems and symbols that represent our people. As the First President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Islam Karimov noted, "Each of the national emblems and symbols serves to enhance our national pride. Each of them is a great textbook." Folklore springs are still boiling all over the country. It is no secret that the world community is studying our masterpieces with sincerity and enthusiasm.
