ABSTRACT

The increased interest in national culture is a bright sign of our time. The problem of preserving the cultural and historical identity, national traditions, unshakable moral values of the people has become urgent. Decorative and applied arts, folklore, oral folk art have organically entered modern life and continue to develop, keeping national traditions intact. They contain a huge potential for the development of cultural heritage, as they have brought to this day, in an almost undistorted form, the nature of the spiritual and artistic comprehension of the world.

KEYWORDS: Interest In National Culture, History, National Tradition, Moral Values Of The People, Folklore, Oral Folk Art.
