

THE ROLE OF HISTORICAL MONUMENTS IN THE FORMATION OF THE NATIONAL PRIDE OF THE YOUNG GENERATION

Turobova Shaira Bahritdinovna***

*Senior Lecturer,
Department of Social Sciences,
Navoi State Pedagogical Institute,
UZBEKISTAN

DOI: 10.5958/2249-7137.2021.02595.7

---

ABSTRACT

The aim of this work is to study the impact of historical and monumental monuments on the formation of national pride in the education of young people. Currently, local lore materials, history and art opportunities are not used enough, but due to them in the article: increase interest in the study of the history of the motherland, the acquisition of new knowledge by students, expanding the professional card of adolescents, It lies in exploring the development of skills such as cultivating a sense of pride.

KEYWORDS: Patriotism, Abilities, Skills, System, Activity, Interests, Monuments, National Pride.

---

REFERENCES

1. Alpatskiy II. Cultural technology in socio-cultural activities in educating young people in the spirit of patriotism: dissertation.
2. Bommel GK. Democritus in fragments and testimonies of antiquity. Moscow, 1965. 103.p.
3. Mapelmana VM, Penkova EM. History of philosophy.. Moscow, 1997. 38.p.
4. Krainova GV. The propaganda role of historical and cultural monuments in the moral and aesthetic education of workers. Leningrad, 1986, 3p.
5. Galkova OV. The concept of "cultural monument": modern approaches to interpretation. MGUKI bulletin. 2009;(2):182-187.
6. Lixachev DS. Restoration of cultural monuments (restoration problems). M., 1981. 232p.