ABSTRACT

Today it is important to study the features of speech, a language that is considered a means of communication. Currently, attention is being paid to the scientific study of the peculiarities of the national language. This article examines the jargons used by young people in the process of daily treatment in the Uzbek language. The slang words of representatives of the younger generation, who are considered the main stratum of society, as well as the importance and necessity of studying their jargon were also given. The psycholinguistic features inherent in jargon words are analyzed from a scientific point of view. It was also taken into account the fact that, in connection with the development of society, new words appear and, accordingly, jargons in the language increase.
