ABSTRACT

The oldest caravan routes in Karakalpakstan are the road connecting the East with the West through the famous Silk Road, and ancient and medieval civilization contributed to the emergence of highly original sources and wonderful examples of spiritual culture. Sufficient ignorance of tour operators, the lack of strong links between them and the influx of foreign tourists to the country, the influence of cultural institutions, non-governmental organizations have a negative impact on the development of tourism. Particular attention was paid to the spiritual development of society, a comprehensively developed person, the enrichment of spiritual culture. A number of important measures have been taken in the Republic of Uzbekistan and laid the foundation for future development.
