ABSTRACT

The adolescent is serious because he believes what he's saying is true. As a result, every teacher and methodologist must pay close attention to this characteristic of adolescents and patiently cultivate a reading culture in them. The text is the main source not only for the study of the artistic features of the work, but also for the use of expressive, literary commentary or creative reading, comprehensive, comparative, problem-solving, research, non-traditional methods of analysis. Every word in it is meant to thicken the message, including the tone and the burning feeling. To put it another way, the poet is tasked with bringing his mind to the level of wisdom.

KEYWORDS: Comprehensive, Comparative, Adolescent
