ABSTRACT

Research aimed at studying the rich scientific heritage of scientists attracts every student. Also, the scientific legacy left by Umar Termezi plays an important role in the development of the science of tafsir. And do not drive away those who call upon their Lord Morning and evening seeking His pleasure. No responsibility lies on you on their account and no responsibility whatsoever lies on them on your account that you should drive them away. He added to the verse, "There are some of you who desire the world, and there are some of you who desire the Hereafter." There is no point in saying that. It gives advice on the division of intent in the process of performing actions with intent. For example, he says, "Known actions are divided into many parts: work, action, speech, silence, attraction, prohibition, thought, and remembrance.
