ABSTRACT

The traditional attitude of India's social reformer, political leader, current politicians, diplomatic and policy makers are having the habits of cooperating to international order, if it seems fair and applicable to world justices. India have been participating in so many world affairs with material assistances as part and parcel of human rights protector than any other country in the contemporary history with the permission of powerful countries. Very notably, since dawn of 2001 as focus light of south Asia peace as well as Afghanistan peace even after death of Taliban rule in Kabul. India interest sprang at high level to strengthen Afghanistan political institutions with goal to protect human rights. Since soviet invasion in 1979 to 1989, there were sporadic chaos, commotion and bomb blast due to supper power politics, rivalry and regional countries politics. This had created so many economic damages, unrest and human rights lost. After end of Russia invasion Taliban ruled Kabul again about ten years with so many human rights violations as unanswerably as unaccountably. Therefore, as big power of south Asia India could not have prevented and involved in Afghanistan for protection human rights against Talban rule unless U.S bring new anti –terrorism law as a new world order. So, after initiated new world order by U.S as to destroy terrorist has been as most useful to India in number of ways such as ,rapprochement with Muslim people ,protecting human rights ,gaining good name from the Afghanistan people and fortifying India's growing power beyond the South Asia.

INTRODUCTION

What is new world order?

So many world order have emerged from birth of politics to development of politics, all these orders are seeming as a new world order as per the situation of ancient period ,and medieval period toward protect citizens from natural hazards ,drought ,famine and poverty along with making unusual law for the public safe and happy purpose. The chief aim of this order is to attract the world people attention by showing its special output for world order that will emerge according the world bad or good situation for make a smooth atmosphere where human being could be live at congenial way in the civil society .Additionally, we can mean this law as a growing crops according to season for full fill the farmers needs, like this new world order would be good for people peaceful life by creating something and destroying something.

What is Aim of this order?

Emergence of new world order with the help of USA in this modern period being much more helpful to solve so many global facing problems such as climate changes ,financial crisis ,inflation ,terrorism ,insurgency and outlaw group atrocities in the world countries .In this way ,anti-terrorism policies of the world powerful countries in Afghanistan attached with new world order for establish a tranquil atmosphere in nook and corner of the world .In Afghanistan, Taliban and war lord motivated terrorist out fits are posing a grave threat to several countries in south Asia and central Asia as continuous annoy as restless disturbances to world countries peace . To contain and control all this anti-social elements, U.S.A enacted anti-terrorism policy at the cost of its three fold country budget expenditure for kill the villain of world peace.

Birth of New World Order

September 9/11 attacks on (WTC) organization by Taliban has let to think about to terminate and enact unanimously anti-terrorism law along with world countries approval and united nation authority support. The interest of U.S.A about this policy is to dismantle terrorism networks and its whereabouts across the world. This would be applicable on those who support, finance, train and accommodate terrorism in the nook and corner of the world as unanswerably .Indeed, this policy has gathered world attention based on its aim to establish peace and prosperity.At the same time this order should be analyzed whether it is good policy or not .For this, people across the world had been raised several questions that why U.S.A have not been taken same action when several countries were attacked by Taliban .So finally people perceived this policy as U.S.A self-centered policy than world welfare. Additionally world people accepted this policy with aim to no longer terrorism should be in the world even though this policy was attribution of U.S.A self-protecting policy and world peace making policy.

Assessing of Anti-Terrorism law

People got panic globally with compassion about world trade centre attacks (W.T.C) which was orchestrated by Taliban on 9/11 for revenge USA involvement in gulf countries. Anti-terrorism law came out with aim to control war, violence and terrorism in the Afghanistan and rest of countries. Simultaneously, people of rest of countries contemplated when America sought world community support for crush down terrorism that why not U.S.A bothered about when so many poor countries are affected by Taliban and its duty ended merely at expressing condolence through the television and mass media. Collectively, U.S. Aposition was as a spectator of over other countries attacks by terrorism and other internal problems .This silent spectator attitude of USA has forced itself to initiate an anti-terrorism policy with self-centered attitude when its World Trade Center was attacked .Therefore, its true angry broken out when its people killed in WTC incident and why did not come out a true angry when Indian parliament was attacked by Taliban team. So, its policy has given more weightier to its internal development than world peaceful development when we look at its policies.

Influence of New World Order on Human Rights Protection

Every bad policy reaches its goal by crossing so many good polices in this way, America brought out anti-terrorism policy which reached its good goal by killing lacks of people in Afghanistan. Its policy was welcomed by so many leaders despite its policy was concerned to fulfill its country interest rather than to protect world justice .Anyhow ,since its policy was seemed to protect human rights in Afghanistan from children to adult it was accepted by world community for the purpose of establish conducive development in Afghanistan. America compensation and assistance to Afghanistan for restore its war made damages has been protecting still so many citizenlife in so many welfare policy ways under the objective of anti-terrorism policy since 2001-2014. In spite of USA has involved in anti-terrorism activities in Afghanistan, its war oriented compensation service has been helping to Afghanistan immensely in following way such as: protection of human rights ,establishing good livelihood sources ,workable situations ,earning atmosphere and business starting opportunities. Totally, all its policies have been satisfying Afghans civics needs.

Emergency of Terrorism

The world has undergone the hardship of the colonial and imperialism dominations .By which, so many country started so many revolutions and independent struggle through the positive, passive and bloody ways. In fact ,these struggle emerged as per situation and atmosphere of those who lived in those days for get freedom from the colonial country .This movements and struggles are instructed to today school going generations as a subject of freedom movements mixed with violent revolution and nonviolent revolution for enable them to understand old colonial administration .Therefore today generation are revising and reading to get wider insight about initiate new methods and tools to revenge or control those country which wants to dominate other country on the name of super power .This modern policy of particular affected countries are named as terrorism as a policy to achieve quickly what does or do they want .Therefore collectively ,terrorism is also a good policy to a particular group or country for protect them from future attacks or invasion of mighty powers and its main theme of ideas are motivations of freedom fighters of particular religion and country.

Containing Terrorism

Why do world people or community coined bloody or unexpected causalities is known as terrorism because which does not have an ethical principle regarding to world welfare and people life .Its action and outcome would be resulting at much more agony ,panic ,eternal fear and devastation of total human being life and assets in particular region of their unlike people or country .Indeed ,how do people call terrorism is most fear full one is based on its consequence of intolerable ,unacceptable ,un-accommodative , ferocious and heart rending outcome of its activities . Its threatening attitude through bomb and explosive devices have caused ever remaining fear and injuries at the heart of leaders and common people in the South Asia, Central Asia, Middle east .After plausible and blatant evidence seen by the world community that terrorism is a tool of some organized people or group to castigate and punish its opponent country in terms of politics, economics and social aspects. Therefore, world countries got together to crush down terrorism birth and remains in the world for the cause common people peaceful life.

Advantage of New world order

Although this new world order implemented by super power along with fifty percentage of self-centered order and fifty percentage of human rights protection interest, it was heralded by the world people since this policy is being so important to protect human rights in Afghanistan and to destroy terrorism network. In fact, this policy was impossible to enforce by all other countries previously except U.S.A though so many countries are affected by terrorism. Therefore, America adventurous anti-terrorism policy has been most wanted and relevant actions at present days and it has destroyed the cruel terrorism networks in Afghanistan.

America contribution

After 9/11 incident ,U.S.A goal was to destroy terrorism for world welfare ,in this regard it has done so many rehabilitation and restructuring works in Afghanistan as a humanitarian work of its war made damages in Afghanistan such as: Deployed more than one lack NATO troops for ensure internal afghan peace

- Established hospital ,clinic and sent doctors
- Allotted abundant money for develop Afghanistan education
- Sought Britain ,France ,Japan ,Germany and India help to reconstruct Afghanistan
- Trained afghan military and Afghan National police
- Offered much more military vehicles and airplane and helicopters for its security after its withdrawal
- More NGO have been inducted in Afghanistan for effective social reconstruction
- Provided plenty of facilities to develop hydropower project, science and technology
- Committed in renovation public schools ,civics needs ,security ,business ,livelihood and agriculture
- Arranged necessary facilities for women's developments such as freedom and liberty without fear
- Focusing state wise developments
- Focusing human resource developments ,employment opportunities and entrepreneur atmosphere
- Paying attention at child nutrition development, school feeding programme and dress .Like this plethora of welfare policies regarding to Afghan reconstruction activities by the U.S.A have been don just for fill up the gap of its war damaged infrastructure and shows itself that it is obviously accountable not only for destroy but also to renovate and restructure entire Afghanistan entity with full brightness.

What is India Policy?

India policy in Afghanistan is so many in the area of politics ,economics ,defense ,agriculture ,science and technology ,culture ,telecommunication ,education ,urban development ,and human resource development .All these policies were established through the memorandum of understanding between India and Afghanistan for ensure that India is fluctuations to take part in Afghanistan internal reconstruction programme as a great democratic neighborwith peace laden approach for the welfare of Afghanistan people. Still now India's humanitarian assistances to Afghanistan reached about 2 billion as a great partner as a marvelous regional player from south Asia continent .Its financial assistances secured fifth international donoramong the more than 140 countries which are contributed to the Afghanistan development .This policy has not been doneby India alone, it is done together with world community which are still pertinent for establish a durable peace in Afghanistan

What is aim of India's policy?

India's policy in Afghanistanprimarily was considered as a pro neighbor policy with aim to make peaceful South Asia as well as Central Asia through the strengthening a strong Afghanistan along with cemented infrastructure .India has never involved in Afghanistan reconstruction activities contrary to other country policy or against other country interest or demonstrate its power in SouthAsia through the Afghanistan reconstruction policy. So, its policy is never aimed at countering, control, contain and collide any other country. Therefore, India's policy in Afghanistan is primarily to promote them from the long mourningand weepingsituation to long mesmerism and well-beingsituation based on international humanitarian law .Because, their laughing life will influence positively to make conducive south Asia atmosphere, at the same time their unlaughing situation will influence negatively on both South Asia and India peace and prosperity.

What is outcome of India'spolicy?

Definitely no country could do something to some country without expectation that is either financial or non-financial aspect, in this way India's reconstruction policy in Afghanistan is to stop terrorismattacks in India and pullAfghanistan to India's side for its peaceful future life .This policy created a new theory that is finance giving and peace buying. This India'sattitude is inevitable and obligatory one presently for protect its country and peoples as per its geography location and enemy plane, is waiting to do much more detrimental activities in future .The input of India'sreconstruction policy is to mitigate and allay the Islamic people tension and ill will on India's which rose due to various reason of India- Pakistanconflict, separation and Hindu – Muslimdissimilarity in the India. Thereby ,frequent terrorism attacks on India is due to unbridled angry of Muslim people on India which could be solved only through the soft policy than hard policy .Because ,Muslims are most blessed people in the world with identity of poor ,self-employed ,illiteracy ,entrepreneurs without government support and upper people domination on-Muslim people .Their emotions are true and valuable which should be solved so smoothly through the international negotiations without hurt their heart.

Impact of India's policy on Afghan human rights protection

Its policy has been influencing toward secure human rights in Afghanistan even still now after math of September 9/11. How doe human rights are protected through India's policy? For instance, people are having their basic inherent rights along with constitutional security and guarantee, at most of occasions their rights are violated by so many reason and at so many situation in the world politics due to power sharing problems, power showing game and power encroaching attitudes. This unpredictable socio, economic and political oriented problems at international and domestic levels have been causing so many resentments among the citizens like war, resurgence ,infiltration ,terrorism ,ethnic conflicts ,inter-community ,caste and political riots .Therefore in this category Afghanistan faced manifold socio ,economic damages by terrorism ,external power intervention and ethnic conflict. By which Afghanistan government could not able to give primary civics needs to its citizens for maintain and run their life according to other country citizen life style .To fill up this expectation of them, September 9/11 made a lucky chance to Afghanistan for draw world assistances. In which India helped more to Afghanistan for protect basic human rights such as school feeding programme ,fellowship to college students ,computer skills training to afghans ,educational exchanging programme ,cultural exchanging programme with fellowship ,self-help group training ,medical facilities ,offered 100 buss ,vocational training, urban and rural development ,toilet construction and Indira Gandhi child hospital and so many administrative training to afghans officials .Therefore, all these human being benefiting polices of India's since 2001-2010 have been immensely protecting human rights by not giving chance to get it violated by any other bad reasons in Afghanistan.

CONCLUSION

India policy really have made so happy Afghanistan people by its marvelous humanitarian assistances, it has eradicated Afghanistan socio-economic and political defects for Afghanistan entire society benefits as well as developments .The reason for India policy has been so famous in Afghanistan is due to USA brought out Anti-terrorism law as a new world order.This law emboldened India to cooperate with world countries for controlterrorism with all moral supports to Afghanistan. In future, India will get benefit from Afghanistan and Afghanistan will get support from India by both country mutual understanding for develop and recalibrate their national agenda as well as all relevant sources to strengthen socioe-conomic and political developments.However all, success and developments came to both India and Afghanistan through USA Anti-terrorism policy in Afghanistan .Therefore America toiled much more than others to create an affable climate in Afghanistan as well as between India and Afghanistanso, both country should not create gab and give gab as commemoration of USA created relations for South Asia Regional Integrity.
