

NATIONAL AND CULTURAL FEATURES OF RELIGIOUS PROVERBS IN ARABIC AND UZBEK

Tadjiyeva Umida*

*Arabic teacher,

“ Al Bukhari University”, UZBEKISTAN

Email id: umida.fayziyeva@mail.ru

DOI: 10.5958/2249-7137.2022.00335.4

ABSTRACT

In this article, some religious articles on the Arabic and Uzbek languages are studied comparatively. Some articles in both languages have been collected and commented on. There are also examples from the Gradually Qur'an and Hadith. It should be noted that it is Islam and the Qur'an that have led to the spread of Arabic language and phraseology around the world. The giants were afraid of Solomon and did not go anywhere. Even though Solomon died standing there, the giants did not notice. Finally, when the body fell to one side, the giants fled in all directions.

KEYWORDS: Religious Beliefs, Born On The Night Of Qadr, Dua, Reward, Fasting

REFERENCES

1. Madayev O, Sobitova T. Folk oral poetic creativity. Tashkent: Sharq, 2010.
2. Maksudov U. Arabic proverbs and sayings: the emergence and development of paremiological dictionaries in Arabic literature. Bulletin of St. Petersburg University. 2012.
3. Sodikova M. “Short Uzbek-Russian dictionary” collection. Tashkent: "Teacher" 1993.