ABSTRACT

as the history of mankind testifies, the cultural level and spiritual perfection of society is determined by the attitude towards women. Although women have been respected and respected in the territory of Central Asia for thousands of years, but due to various objects and sub-factors, historical sources expressing information about the past, it was concluded that the woman of the East lived in the whirlpool of a backward way of life in the past. One of the situations that caused such a reflection to take root, it cannot be overestimated if we say that the real picture in ourselves is considered a disappointment in the study. So far, the role of women in society has not been sufficiently studied for many centuries. The fact that scientists of different Sciences study this problem through historical manuscripts, material monuments and other sources is an urgent task of today's stage of development.
