ABSTRACT

In the current process of globalization, there is a struggle in the information space to achieve political goals, the use of information as a weapon is growing. We can observe such cases in the CIS countries. The riots in Russia, Belarus and Kazakhstan are good examples of this. The most dangerous of these are the moral threats that have a serious impact on the moral, family and social life, aimed at undermining the values and way of life of nations by influencing the psyche of the people.

KEYWORDS: Global, Transnational Crime, Terrorism, Hacker, Conspiracy, Organized Crime, Drug Trafficking.
