

PRELIMINARY RESULTS OF THE STUDY OF THE NATURAL
GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATION OF THE UCHTEPA BULAKMOZOR
COMPLEX "UCHTEPA-2"

Tukhtasinov Dilshod***

*Basic Doctoral Student,
Namangan State University, Namangan, UZBEKISTAN
Email id: d.tukhtasinov@gmail.com

DOI: 10.5958/2249-7137.2022.00219.1

---

ABSTRACT

This article describes the natural geographical location of the Uchtepa-2 complex in the Fergana Valley, the first experimental research on the monument, preliminary data of large-scale archeological excavations, photos and writings about the findings of the monument. data are given. Archeological excavations and finds show that Uchtepa-2 is an ancient and early medieval fire temple.

KEYWORDS: Archeology, stratigraphy, fireworks, pottery, monuments, antiquity, early Middle Ages, Fergana Valley, Naryn River, horseradish, stone knives, Tranchea.

---

REFERENCES

1. Abdullaev MG. Toponymy of the Fergana Valley in "Boburnoma". The Great Silk Road and the Fergana Valley. Materials of the Republican scientific-practical forum. Tashkent, 2004. pp.194-200.
  2. Anarboev AA. Ancient Fergana and Akhsikent in the history of Uzbek statehood. Materials of the Republican scientific seminar "Uzbek people and statehood". Samarkand. 2001. pp.5-22.
  3. Anorboev A. Islamov O, Matboboev B. Ancient Fergana in the history of Uzbekistan. Tashkent, 2000.
  4. Gorbunova NG. Ceramics of the settlements of Ferghana in the first centuries of our era. TGE. T. XX. pp. 114-146.
  5. Zadneprovsky YuA. Ancient agricultural culture of Ferghana. The science. 1962.
  6. Oboldueva TG. Excavations in 1960 at the site of Eilatan. KSIA. 1962; 91:38-47.
  7. Anarboev AA Ancient Fergana and Aksikent in the history of Uzbek statehood. Materials of the Republican scientific seminar "Uzbek people and statehood". Samarkand. 2001. pp.5-22.
  8. Matboboev BKh, Mashrabov Z. Ancient and medieval Andijan. Tashkent, 2011.
  9. Kudratov SS. Early pottery kilns from the settlement of Eylatan. ONU. 1991;(3):75-76.
-

- 10. Abdullaev MG. Toponymy of the Fergana Valley in "Boburnoma". The Great Silk Road and the Fergana Valley. Materials of the Republican scientific-practical anduman.TTashkent, 2004. pp.194-200.
- 11. Baratov SR, Baratova LS. A unique bracteate from the Varzik burial ground. 1990. pp.35-38.