

HISTORICAL AND ETHNOGRAPHIC FEATURES OF THE UZBEK FAMILY IN THE MIDDLE AGES

Oblomurodov Naim*

*Professor,
Doctor of Historical Sciences,
Social Sciences and Humanities Department of Tashkent Institute of Finance,
UZBEKISTAN

Email id: oblomurodov@gmail.com

DOI: 10.5958/2249-7137.2022.00385.8

ABSTRACT

The article analyzes the stages of historical development of the Uzbek family in the Middle Ages, historical and ethnographic features of family life, lifestyle, economic life and social relations between family members. It also covers the Uzbek family's neighborhood, mutual assistance, relational system between the large patriarchal family and some aspects of the national mentality, land and property ownership, number of family members, role and place of the family in society. The article describes the location of the family of artisans living in the historical cities of Uzbekistan, such as Tashkent, Bukhara, Khiva, Kokand, Margilan, Termez, Nurata, the location of the population in urban areas, the traditions of family crafts in the Middle Ages, the influence of Islam on city life, a description of the place of mosques and the community of religious scholars in family life.

KEYWORDS: Medieval, Uzbek Family, Historical And Ethnographic Features, Lifestyle, Economic Life, Social Relations, Large Family, Islam, Religious Scholar, Mosque, Community, Neighborhood, Land, Landowning, Taxes.

REFERENCES:

1. Buriev O. From the history of the Uzbek family. Tashkent, 1995. p.4
 2. Askarov A. Ethnogeography and ethnic history of the Uzbek people. Tashkent, 2007.
 3. Ishakov M. Letters from the Forgotten Kingdom. Tashkent, 1992. p.3
 4. Ishakov M. Letters from the Forgotten Kingdom. Tashkent, 1992. p.3
 5. Moshkova VG. Carpet-making of Uzbeks of the Turkman tribe of the Nurata intermountain. Carpets of the peoples of Central Asia (materials of ethnographic expeditions 1929 - 1945). Tashkent, 1970.
 6. Khakliiev V. Rural community in Northern Fergana in the late XIX - early XX century: Author's abstract. dis. ... Cand. history. sciences. Tashkent 1998. p 9.
 7. Arifxanova ZX. The essence and functions of the neighborhood. (Tashkent mahallas in 30-80s). Tashkent mahallas. Traditions and modernity. Tashkent: Yangi asr avlodi, 2002. p. 18.
-

8. Solovyova OA. Faces of the power of blogging Bukhara. SPb., 1998. p. 49.
9. Askarov AA. History of Uzbekistan. Tashkent, 1994. p. 13.
10. Buriev O, Shoymardonov I, Nasriddinov Q. From the history of the Uzbek family. Tashkent, 1995. 22p.
11. History of the Uzbek SSR. Tashkent. Uz AS. 1957. 4 vols.1 vol. Book 2. P. 42.
12. Sukhareva OA. Kavartalnaya community of the late feudal city of Bukhara. Msocow, 1976.
13. Burieva X. Historical toponymy of Tashkent. The end of the XIX century - the beginning of the XX century. Tashkent, 2009. 37p..