ABSTRACT

Economic, cultural, and scientific contacts between countries and their peoples make relevant topics related to the study of intercultural communications, with the study of the relationship between languages and cultures. Periphrases, including medical periphrases, like other language and speech units, are separate units belonging to the lingua-culture of each nation. In this article, analyzing lingua-cultural aspects of the medical periphrases of the English language, folk proverbs, aphorisms, as well as small passages were investigated.

KEYWORDS: Lingua-Culture, Traditions, Intercultural Communications, The relationship Between Languages And Cultures, Medical Periphrases, Science, English Language, Proverbs, Aphorisms, Scholars, Speech Process.
