

THE ROLE OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD INSTITUTION IN THE UPBRINGING OF HARMONIOUSLY DEVELOPED GENERATIONS

Muminov Ulmas Ravshanqulovich***

* Teacher,

Denau Business and Pedagogical Institute,

UZBEKISTAN

Email id: ulmas@gmail.com

DOI: 10.5958/2249-7137.2022.00374.3

---

ABSTRACT

The territory of Uzbekistan has the beginning of the mahalla of the unique form of self-government social organization. The neighborhood is directly through the public history, the community of people, is a past two thousand years. It is an event typical of our nationality. In this article, during the years of independence, this article is opened by the mahalla at the reforms and youth at the mahalla institution during the years of independence.

KEYWORDS: Neighborhood, Youth, Reform, Society, People, Spirituality, State. A Citizen.

---

REFERENCES

1. Jalilov Sh. From a strong state to a strong society. T. Uzbekistan. 2001. 13p.
2. Boydadaev M. Current issues of civil society and public administration. Tashkent: TDUII, 2003. 52 p.
3. Mirolimov Sh. Neighborhood love. Tashkent, Navruz 1994. 96 p.
4. Rakhmonov R. Istiqlol and neighborhood. Democratization and human rights. 2001;(1):4-11 b
5. Ravshanqulovich MU. Formation of "Mahalla Institute" in Uzbekistan as a Local Self-Government Body, Creation of its Legal Foundations. Zien Journal of Social Sciences and Humanities, 2022;6:36–40.