

IMPROVEMENT OF ARCHITECTURAL COMPOSITION SOLUTIONS OF SECONDARY SCHOOLS IN NUKUS

Qodirova Surayyo Adilovna*; Turabayev Jaldas Ongarbayevich*

*Professor,

Tashkent Institute of architecture and construction,

UZBEKISTAN

Email id: surayyo@gmail.com

Master Degree Student,

Tashkent Institute of architecture and construction,

UZBEKISTAN

Email id: jaldas@gmail.com

DOI: 10.5958/2249-7137.2022.00377.9

ABSTRACT

Demographic structure of the city of Nukus. The article discusses the buildings of a secondary school in Nukus. It shows the types of secondary schools in Nukus and the capabilities of their students. Over the years, the types of schools have not changed depending on the capabilities of students

KEYWORDS: Nukus City. Demographic Structure Of The City Of Nukus, Types Of Secondary School Buildings, Number Of Students In The School.

REFERENCES

1. Kotlyakov VM. Dictionary of modern geographical names. Yekaterinburg: U-Factoriya. Under the general editorship of Academician. 2006.
2. Wolf JS. "Hearing, first session". Committee on International Relations. U.S. Senate. Verified March 13, 2018 by the Honorable John S. Wolf, Assistant Secretary of State for Nonproliferation: ... The Ministry of Defense completed a project to dismantle the former Soviet HO research Center in Nukus, Uzbekistan, in fiscal year 2002.
3. Composition of school buildings and their interior. Available at: <http://stroy-spravka.ru/article/kompozitsiya-shkolnykh-zdaniy-i-ikh-interer>